A N 'ARABIAN NIGHTS' IN SIXPENNY PARTS

AN alliance which began with the famous popular edition of Nansen, has now been extended to the 'Arabian Nights.' George Newnes, by arrangement with Archibald Constable, issues in sixpenny parts a delightful edition of the 'Arabian Nights Entertainments.' It is certain to be very popular and taken in by everybody for the sake of its pictures and excellent clear print. Many of the illustrations are by Robinson, and how admirable they are may be gathered from the three which, by the publishers' kindness, we are able to show.
